

David Jones

Demographics:

David is four years old. He lives in California and is so excited to be able to go to school next year.

Personal Details:

David stays home with his mom, practicing his more academic skills when he isn't busy playing or driving his mom crazy.

Interests:

He loves watching videos, singing, dancing and playing with toys, especially cars and trains. He gets very bored while everyone else in the house is working on virtual schoolwork.

Learner Environment:

Being in CA, David's family is somewhat cautious of COVID-19, but they are beginning to resume normal activities. Both parents are working again.

Previous Educational Successes:

David has been to preschool and loved it for the social experience it provided.

End Goals:

David needs an activity to occupy him that will help him to be less inclined toward watching other kids play and help him to get ready for kindergarten next year.
